

For Immediate Release - 10/4/22, 8:02pm

Buhi Supply Co. Announces Giveback Program, Restocks Eco4 Bag

PHOENIX, Arizona -- Retailer Buhi Supply Co., has restocked the affordable and environmentally friendly Renew Eco 4 bag after being sold out for 3 months.

"These bags were so popular that we sold out in less than a week," Buhi Director of development and growth, Tim Burns said. "We've taken steps to make sure we don't stock out again."

Starting next week, for every Eco4 bag sold, for the next 3 months, Buhi will donate $10 to the well-known global nonprofit organization., Green Warriors.

Since 1971, Green Warriors uses peaceful protest and creative communication to generate increased knowledge of environmental issues and potential solutions, such as global warming, the destruction of ancient forests, and the deterioration of oceans.

Green Warriors is highly respected not just for their focus on the environment, but they also share Buhi's commitment to inclusion and diversity. In addition, they have more than 250,000 members in the United States and 2.8 million members worldwide, committed to the fight to save the environment.

"Partnering with Green Warriors to give back to the environment just made sense," Burns said. "We love their peaceful approach, their inclusive environment, and their sterling reputation in the nonprofit sphere."

Founded in 2009, Buhi Supply, Co. is an online retailer offering over 60 products. The company is known for its fashion-forward backpacks, purses, wallets, satchels, and duffels. Buhi has entered the eco-friendly retail space with a line of 90-percent biodegradable bags and recently acquired Soft-T's, a manufacturer known for its eco-friendly t-shirts. Company sales average $12 million annually across North America.

-###-